IFCLA Conference 2016 – London

Thursday 9 & Friday 10 June 2016

Hosted and organised by the Society for Computers and Law (SCL) at the Institution of Engineering and Technology, 2 Savoy Place, London, WC2R 0BL.

IFCLA 2016 Conference sponsorship opportunities

The IT lawyers of the world are coming to London in 2016. SCL has the honour of organising the prestigious IFCLA Conference and has every intention of making it a roaring success. Leading IT lawyers from six continents will attend, joining UK expert practitioners in a two-day examination of important IT law topics and networking.

Every type of organisation can benefit from this opportunity, including law firms and course providers. This could be your opportunity to widen your organisation's reach by raising your profile with important opinion formers from across the globe. IFCLA 2016 offers a chance to sharpen your international profile at minimal cost.

The Conference brochure will be distributed electronically to all attendees, expected to number 200 plus. The special edition of Computers & Law for June/July 2016 (a full colour 40-page magazine, rated as the leading publication in its field) will feature articles related to the event and will be distributed to all attendees at the Conference and to all 1,500 SCL members.

Sponsorship of this Conference will not only show your support for this important international event, but will also subsidise concessionary rates at this event for academics and students and will help to continue the work of IFCLA after the Conference is over.
